TYCOON RESOURCES

THOUSAND CUPS TYCOON RESOURCES

Local jockey Angus Chung Yik-lai rode 24 winners last season, with 17 of them coming for the Tony Cruz stable — a clear indication of the strong support he has received from the trainer. At Wednesday night's Happy Valley meeting, Cruz has again entrusted Chung with two capable runners, THOUSAND CUPS in Class 5 and TYCOON RESOURCES in Class 3. Both have been given a thorough preparation, and the familiar trainer-jockey partnership may well find its way back into the winner's enclosure.

THOUSAND CUPS, who contests the Class 5 1200m event, finished third over the this trip in Class 4 last season, beaten only by the competitive PERFECTDAY and FLOW WATER FLOW. It was unable to improve on that effort and prevail in its next start, after which its rating was subsequently eased to the point where it became eligible for Class 5 company. It has since made six appearances in Class 5, including a runner-up finish over Happy Valley 1200m when beaten only half a length by DECISION LINK. Both of its career placings have come over this course and distance, and with a solid preparation behind it this time, THOUSAND CUPS appears to have the right credentials to open its winning account at this level.

TYCOON RESOURCES lines up in the Class 3 1200m event after making just four starts last season. Its first three runs all came at Happy Valley — twice over 1000m and once over 1200m — and it completed a perfect hat-trick. On its fourth appearance, the stable switched it to Sha Tin 1200m, where it finished last of 12. A post-race veterinary examination revealed that it had suffered an irregular heartbeat, providing a clear explanation for the disappointing effort. After a full summer of retraining, the horse has been given ample time to recover fully and rebuild its condition before returning to competition. Back at Happy Valley on Wednesday, the venue where it produced its best form last season, TYCOON RESOURCES should be well placed to reproduce its true ability and make a strong winning challenge.
